BURBERRY

Burberry Café: Shenzhen, China

Recognised as a world leading luxury fashion powerhouse, Burberry London opened their first 'Thomas's Café' in Shenzhen, China as part of the new Burberry Open Spaces which are continuing to develop all over the world.

Boasting opulent, classic and modern interiors, the café design is as equally impressive as the fashion. Adorned with soft beige accents, chamfered mirrors and intricate motifs from the Burberry Animal Kingdom, this unique experience demonstrates its stature as the top market of luxury in every sense of the word.

Evoking elegance and sophistication, William Edwards crafted a bespoke collection of chinaware characterised by a simple yet bold design, incorporating the 'Burberry England' logo and the intricate 'Burberry Animal Kingdom' artwork.

THE OTHER HOUSE

The Other House: London

A newly opened concept-hotel, primarily located for explorations of the capital's best offerings.

The Other House promises all the inside-track benefits of a private members' club combined with the convenience and autonomy of having your own London crashpad. The decor throughout is rainforest-opulent, littered with animal motifs, sumptuous patterned furnishings and an integration of full-sized trees with sustainability at the heart of the properties design.

In harmony with the tropical interiors, William Edwards introduced a 'Sultan's Garden' inspired collection, largely defined through a delicate monkey motif upon a series of radial bold stripes, both stunningly beautiful and incredibly sophisticated.

San Domenico: Italy

Located in the city of Imola, Italy. San Domenico is an authentic two-Michelin starred restaurant celebrating the outstanding flavours of Italian cuisine.

San Domenico offers a chic yet inviting dining area with contemporary artworks curated by a local art gallery. While dining, guests can onlook the quaint historical square and get lost in a wave of refined excellence.

With inspiration drawn from the signature 'Diamond' range, William Edwards gave San Domenico the bespoke treatment, introducing an extravagant collection that includes an array of intricate design details highlighting the iconic badge, custom back-stamp, and gold mica accents.
